AGAINST BRYAN.

Democrats Who Repudiate Popocracy in the Nation.

DEMOCRATIC ROLL OF HONOR.

Long Line of Sturdy Americans Who Put Patriotism Above Party.

Besuit Next Tuesday Unmistakably Shown in the Revolt Against the Leadership of the Man Who Bids for the Presidency on Principles Antagonistic to Everything the Oid Democracy Has Held Dear-Blant Refusals to Put the Half Dollar Above the Dollar and to Haul Down the Flag and Sneak Away From Duty - Notable Names.

Mothing in the ante-election developments from one end of the country to the other shows more conspicuously or forcefully the trend of public feeling than the constantly increasing number of Democrats who are moved by a spirit of patriotic duty to announce that they will vote for Mr. McKinley on Tuesday. Prominent leaders in Democracy, men notably successful in commercial pursuits, solid farmers, voters in all walks of life in every quarter of the land, are among those who have gone over from the polluted Democracy of Bryan and Croker to the patriotic support of President McKinley, and have made known their great awakening. Three thousand such Americans have been recorded. These are, manifestly, but the exponents of a vast number of Democrats whose honest convictions have taken them over to the party of honest money and broad Americanism

A mere list of a portion of these Democrats. representative citizens all, with extracts from few of the potent reasons they have given for their conversion is more elequent than columns of oratory

As a preliminary, it may be interesting to recall the beginning of this movement in that minority report of the Committee on Resolutions to the Democratic National Convention of 1893, containing this declaration of proud integrity, a which William C. Whitney arose

"Until international cooperation among leading nations for the coinage of silver can be secured, we favor the rigid maintenance of the existing gold standard as essential to the preservation of our national credit, the redenotion of our public pledges and the keeping inviolate of our country's honor."

To this statement of loyalty to honorable pledges these gentlemen signed their names:

DAVID B. HILL of New York WILLIAM F. VILAS of Wisconsin. GEORGE GRAY of Delawate JOHN PRENTISS POE of Maryland IRVING W. DREW of New Hampshire. C. O. HOLMAN of Maine. P. J. PARRELL of Vermont LYNDE HARRISON of Connecticut DAVID S. BAKER of Rhode Island. THOMAS A. C. WEADOCK of Michigan. JAMES E. O'BRIEN of Minnesota. JOHN E. RUSSBLL of Massachusetts ROBERT E WRIGHT of Pennsylvania WILLIAM R. STEELE of South Dakota ALLAN MCDERMOTT of New Jersey

Some of the thousands of Democrats who have felt compelled to leave their party and support the principles for which President McKinler stands are these:

BRYAN'S INCONSISTENCY DISGUSTS DENBY. The Ron. Charles Denby of Evansville, Ind., who was President Cleveland's Minister to China. Mr. Denby says: "Mr. Bryan first urged the purchase of the Philippines from Spain, and then as soon as the islands were purchased he set up the cry of imperialism, which he knows to be false, and harps upon it day and night.

"Prosperity is the great issue with the farmers in the West, and they know that the reelection of President McKinley will secure a continuance of this prosperity.

"The United States cannot afford to lose in the race for the trade of a region inhabited by 800,000,000 people. I am heartfly in favor of the wise and statesmanlike measures the President has taken in protecting American citizens and American trade.

Tae Ron. James H. Eckels, who was Comptroller of the Currency under President Cleve-

The flon John G. Carlisle Secretary of the Treasury under President Cleveland and formerly Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Hon, Charles S. Fairchild, Secretary of the Treasury in President Cleveland's Cabinet. Mr. Fairchild voted for Palmer and Buckner in 1898, but this year he has declared his intention of voting for Mckinley and Rossevelt. Gen. Simon Boltvar Buckner, Democratie

(gold) candidate for Vice-President in 1896.

Gen. Buckner says: "I shall do all I can to secure the election of Mr. McKinley. Bryan, in his trip through Kentucky, identified himself with Goebelism and drove away from his support the real Democracy of the State. His election would be a menace to civil liberty." Gen. John M. Palmer, the head of the Gold Democrats' ticket in 1896, wrote, just before he died a few weeks ago, a letter for publication in which he said that he should vote for

McKinley this year. TRUE AMERICAN POLICY SEEN IN CRINA

The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh of Philadelphia, who was appointed Ambassador to Italy by President Cleveland. Mr. MacVeagh says of his decision to support the Republican ticket: controlling reason is the unwillingness I feel to intrust the government of the country to the men who now represent and entrol the Democratic oganization, standing as they do upon the Chicago platform of

"It seems to me the present tendency of President McKinley's mind as to a foreign policy can be discerned in the true American Policy he is now pursuing to China."

The Hon. Don M. Dickinson, Postmaster. General under President Cleveland. Mr. Dickinson renounces Bryanism and pledges his earnest support to President McKinley The Hon. J. Sterling Morton, President Cleveland's Secretary of Agriculture. The Hon. George Hoadley, formerly Demo

United States Senator William Lindsay of Kentucky: "Mr Bryan not only gave his influence and advocacy to the ticker fraudulently nominated by the Music Hall Convention, letter of the agitator. In every line it is apbut when it was defeated at the pells came to the capital of the State and encouraged the defeated candidates in their contest for the State o'les, and so far forgot the proprieties State o'll es, and so far forgot the proprieties | willing to play on any string which shall in-of his high position as to congratulate the con-flame the minds of his followers and excite the lay for President." testants on the political complexion of the envy, hatred and malice of the discontented, sources by which their contests were to be tried | His followers say he is a man of character. His and devided

"If the people of the country have come : regard the courts of Kentucky as more or less | beiray it. The man who wrote that letter is governed by political considerations in the administration of the law, we are as much indebted to Mr Bryan for that unfortunate fact as to any other man. Kentucky ought Democracy is an heirleom in the family. Mr. esty in treating the question of the currency, Read adds: "I want to sleep nights. If I hopesty in the treatment of aggregates of hould vote for Bryan my conscience would be like the brow of abor, surmounted by that crown of thorns, and rest would be impos-William T. Baker of Chicago, was Presi dent of the World's Fair, has been President of the Chicago Board of Trade and has been a free trade Democrat. Mr. Baker writes to Senator Hanna: The Democratic organization has passed under the control of public enemies, and no man wao helds to the traditional dectrines of the party is under the slightest obligation to follow the present leaders. "The policies that guided the party from Jefferson to Cleveland have been sidetracked for the isms of Populists and Anarchists. "Mr. Bryan's promise that he will recommend such additional legislation as may be necessary to dissolve every private monopoly which does business outside of the State of its origin. would mean under Populist interpretation and control the limitation of all successful enterprise within State lines, not a captivating programme to suggest at the moment when American commerce is being pushed beyond the seas. "Since Napoleon Boraparte there has been no greater imperialist than Bryan himself His will is the law of the party that supports him, and, if elected, he would endeavor to rule the entire nation with the same iron hand Napoleon deluged Europe in blood to reach a throne, and Bryan would not hesitate to wreck every industry in the land to attain the Presi dency

POPOCRATIC MAN OF HALF TRUTHS. Franklin MacVeegh of Chicago, Demo-eratic candidate for the United States Senate

n 1894, Says: "Free sliver at 16 to 1 is the issue of this campaign-all devices of a 'paramount issue the contrary notwithstanding. The dangers of 1806 are still at our doors, and will be as long as Mr. Bryan is a candidate or a possible can fidate. He can see only the surface of great questions. He is a man of half truths-the most dangerous sort of a mun for great responsibilities, and, as might be expected of such a man, he is responsive to any radicalism under the sun. Melville E. Ingalis, President of the Big Four of the Silver Knights of America.

Railroad. Oliver C. Sabin, formerly Secretary

Dennis A. Hayes, President of the Greet Glass International Association: "I hope for Mr. McKinley's election from the workingman's standpoint. When the Wilson law became effective our trade was reduced 15 per cent. in wages. After McKinley was elected wages were restored. I am an expansionist." Roswell Miller, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad.

Baell B. Gordon, former chairman of the Virginia Democratic State Committee: "Until 1896 the principles of the Democratic party seemed to me to embody more nearly than any other the greatest good to the greatest number, with due regard to the higher interests of the nation. To-day it has animgonized the vast majority of those whose sanity and solveney are above suspicion.

"Mr. Bryan's pet phrase is that the Repubican party puts the dollar above the man. The only specific remedy he offers is to put the half-dollar above the dollar. This policy of repudiation, by suppressing the negro vote n the South, by the arts of a Goebel and a Rasin in the border States, and by the distinguished services of a retired murderer and practising thief in New York city, it is hoped to force on a great nation."

ANTI-BRYANISM A HIGH PUBLIC DUTY.

Col. A. C. Kaufman of Charleston, S. C., veteran of the Confederacy, a member of the Board of Control of the American National Red Cross, and a member of the Board of Visiters to the West Point Milliary Academy:

"This determination to vote for McKinley and Roosevelt has been made after the most mature deliberation on my part and because I believe that their election is most important for the development of the South. A stable financial policy is essential to the floating of large loans, and this is needed to carry to sucess many enterprises in which my home city of Charleston is interested. Chiefest among these are the introduction of a perfect system of water works and the entrance of the Seaboard Air Line Rallway by an extension from

Augusta, Ga. vote under these circumstances against Mr. Bryan may not be regarded as an unpardonable sin against Democracy, of which he is not the champion, but rather a high public

"The most convincing argument, perhaps, in support of the McKinley Administration and the most potent reasons for its indorsement by the conservative, thinking, old-line Democrats of the country are the extraordinary and unexampled successes that began soon after its advent and that have month by month, year by year, without a cessation continued to scatter plenty o'er a smiling land. "The South, above all other sections of the country, should fight for rather than oppose territerial expansion. By it the farmer will get more money for his cotton and the manufacturer higher prices for his goods. "Belleving, as I do, that the election of Mr. Bryan would bring untold disaster upon the country, now at the zenith of prosperity, I again say that I shall vote for President Mckiney to be his own successor. The consequences which would follow his defeat would find its way into every American home."

Some New York Mckipley Democrats.

The Hon. William C. Whitney, President Cleveland's Secretary of the Navy Oscar S. Straus, Minister to Turkey under President Cleveland. Joseph J. Little, former President of the Board of Education: "I want a dollar that will not blanch when placed beside the money of any other country in the world."

John D. Crimmins, who four years ago voted for Palmer and Buckner: "Upon the one great issue to be decided at the polis in November the foreign-born voters. the workingmen of all nationalities and beliefs, can vote but one way, as I see the situa tion. They must vote to protect their own interests by the continuance in our country of abundant employment at good wages, paid in a currency as good all over the world as it is in the markets of New York. They must vote for financial honesty and honor. Many of them send part of their earnings to the old country. They want their remittances to represent as much value there as here. With capital employed labor is employed. With capital assured of returns labor is assured of wages. Mr. Bryan's adherents are not makers of employment, of wealth, of respectly or of advancement. They are not of the men I have been accustomed to train with in the Democratic party-men such as symour, Tilden, Manning, Hewitt, Cooper ansen, Anderson, Grace, Bigelow, Green Ryan, Bissinger, Schell, Vanderpoel, Campbell. Whitney, Simmons, Hendricks, Frissell statesmen, merchants, and manufacturers, whose names were honorably enrolled in the Democratic party, as well as in the roster of solid citizens and patriots. William M. Ivins: "Brynn's letter of acceptance is not the letter of the statesman, but the parent that the man is misled by lack of experfence, of training, of accurate information. of well-founded convictions; but eager and with the Jacksonians and voted the Demoletter does not betray it. That he is, above all things, honest. Again, his letter does not times are good enough now." politically balacers and intellectually dishonest, although his life may be clean and all his campaign. It is not expansion, for the ex-Opie P. Read, the author, who says that his panding has been done. It is honesty. Hona just as instruments of our economical progrese; honesty in carrying out national policies which are imposed upon us by the necessary laws of economic evolution; honesty in the treatment of international questions, honesty in the application of the principles of liberty. Everywhere, universally, Bryanism stands for

WHEELER, HEWITT, FITCH AND ORR

Everett P. Wheeler, lawyer.

E. Ellery Anderson, lawyer The Hon. Abram S. Bewitt, fermerly Mayor of New York city and a Representative in Con-Ashbel P. Fitch, former Tammany Comptroller of New York city. Thomas H. McCracken, business representative of the Progressive Carpenters' and the New York City Carpenters' unions for ten years: "Bryan will not get my vote this year He got it in 1806, but he won't get it in 1900." William A. Perrine, representative of the Iron Moulders' Conference.

Thomas F. Ryan, a Democrat associated with William C. Whitney in business enterprises. Gustav H. Schwab, agent of the North Ger man Lloyd Steamship Company.

Wheeler H. Peckham, lawyer Alexander E. Orr: "I will not vote for Bryan. hope everybody will do all that can be done defeat this ticket by veting for McKinley." Delancey Nicoll: "I cannot vote for such a dishonest financial policy as the platform advo

Theodore W. Myers, formerly Comptroller of New York city: "The Kansas City Convention made a fatal mistake in keeping alive a dead issue. I cannot support by action or vote the free coinage of silver. I am one of a large number of discouraged Democrats who are wondering why in the name of common sense their party does not want their help and votes. Francis H. Ruhe: "I never voted the Republican ticket in my life. This year I am for McKinley for all I am worth. William J. Curtis, member of the National Democratic Committee from New York: "The platform adopted and the candidates nominated at Kansas City show that the Democratic party under its present management no longer presents any attractions to the men who have always believed in sound Democratic princi-

William L. Turner, 22 William street. Charles D. Ingersoll, 179 Broadway: " cannot stand Bryan and debased money. William B. Rornblower, whom President Cleveland nominated for a Justice of the Su preme Court of the United States.

ANTI-EXPANSIONIST EVEN CAN'T SWALLO BRYAN. Charlton T. Lewis, lawyer and editor, Pres dent of the Prison Association of the State anti-expansionist of pronounced type Mr. Lewis will vote for McKinley and Roose velt on the issue of honest finance.

George L. Rives. William R. Grace. Gen. Daniel E. Sickles.

Patrick H. Carlin builder and contractor of Brooklyn: "The election of Mr. Bryan would be a lamentable histake. If I did not sincerely believe this I would not turn my back upon the political teachings of my life. A series of disasters would follow his election to power."

Gen. Horatio C. King of Brooklyn: reneration of the same sentiments at Kansas City, the reaffirmation of the same dectrines. the addition of a worse one, that is, to haul down the American flag in the Philippines, has convinced me that Bryanism is Populism run mad. I am amared that any pertion of my fellow Democrats of the old period should, for the sake of this bugaboo of imperialism undertake to crawl back into the so-called Democratic party.

Louis Windmuller: "I believe that Bryan's election would be a national calamity and that all those who really care for the country's welfare have nothing eise to do but to support Mr. McKinley. All other questions are of miner importance beside that of the currency, and the Democratio managers may boast all they want to, but the fact is that a vast majority of the Germanborn voters regard this question as the paramount one, beside which 'imperialism,' socalled, cuts no figure."

"I consider Mr. Bryan a dangerous mas for the reason that he seeks to arouse class hatred and panders to socialistic and populistic tendencies. He should not be elected, and it is the duty of every business man, every workingman and of all who love their country to see that he is defeated."

William E. Curtis. Andrew H. Dailey, former Democratic Surro gate of Kings county: "When I want to destroy a bad cause I come out actively against it. I don't believe in any halfway measures

n regard to Bryanism. Adolph Hirson of Heller, Hirsch & Co. Lyman W. Reddington, former Assembly

W. A. Paulson of the New York Life Insurance Company. Sidney V. Lowell, attorney, of Brooklyn

Bryan's position in the Philippine rebellion is treasonable. Eugene V. Brewster, Brooklyn: "There are twenty-five reasons why Mr. Bryan should not be elected. The chief one is that he has behind him a disorganized mass of men with con flicting theories, and if elected, the appoint ment of many thousand of efficials out of such mass would mean confusion worse than con founded. August Kreamer, manufacturer of Brooklyn.

BENEDICT'S UNCO MPROMISING STAND.

E. C. Benedict, Grover Cleveland's friend the banker on whose yacht, the Oneida, the former President has made so many trire: I regret to find no party in existence whose platform supports Democratic principles to any degree. I would as soon think of contributing to a lot of Chinese who should capture our Christian churches, set up therein the teachings of Confucius as the Gospel, and a painfully conspicuous Joss to worship instead of the unseen God, and without changing the names of the churches should call themselves regular Christians."

John T. Grow, lawyer. John H. Scheidt, banker of Brooklyn.

Frederick Beitz. J. Harvey Cook, Fishkill-on-the-Hudson. THE REAL DEMOCRACY FROM UP STATE Nelson J. Palmer, Fredonia.

A. J. Mills, Oriskany: "I liked McKinley's attitude on the Cuban question and I admire Roose elt very much." Elton T. Ransom, formerly Democratic watched President McKinley's course

Assembly man, Ransomville: and cannot see where he has failed in duty as an able Chief Magistrate, and a patriot of lofty ideals. Jacob Stern, Surrogate of Erie county for McKinley. When the Democratic party comes back to my way of thinking I will be with them again." G. L. Randall, Bridgewater.

Capt. A. L. Delcambre, Mount Kisco. Charles M. Wicknire, Waterville. James Brittingham, Mount Vernon. John Sullivan, Bridgewater. Barnard Gagan, Bridgewater: "I shall vote

C. N. Neal, Bridgewater: "I am a Democrat this year just the same as always, but I am not in favor of Bryan.

William H. Barron, Bridgewater: "I am going to vote the Republican ticket this year."
Byron Rose, Sauqueit: "I lived in Utica ley for President. C. L. Bowen, Sauquoit; "I used to be Democrat, and suppose I am counted so now, but in these times I am a Republican. A. Parkhurst, Oriskany. John F. Malloy, Oriskany: "I connot Bryan When a man forces himself on the people as he did you may count me out."

R. B. Holman, Oriskany: "I have never yet veted the Republican national ticket, but will do so this year. Things are in good shape. and we should keep McKinley where he is."

istration. J. B. Dozier, District Attorney of Shaste H. G. Millington, Clark Mills: "I voted for ounty, Cal., a leading Democrat of northers

Cleveland and got enough of it. Mckinley is good enough Charles Lorraine, Clark Mills: "I used is due to the spirit of expansion. o be a Democrat, but the times suit me better naval officer at San Francisco under the flepublicans." A. Platt, Oriskany: "Times are good enough

Horace G. Platt, San Francisco. for me now and I don't propose to do anything J. W. Oates, brother of Gov. Oates of Georgia, that would tend to bring about a change." of Santa Rosa, Cal. Formerly Democratic J. Lorraine, Clark Mills. W. Dennison, Oriskany: "I shall vote for candidate for State Senator. George W. Baker, a leading San Francisco McKiniey. We want a continuation of the good times H. B. Harrison, Clark Mills: "I used to be a Democrat, but no silver business for me. The Democratic politicians are playing for selfish ends and not for the good of the country. P. W. Copeland, Clark Mills.

Arthur Wright, Clark Mills Lewis Farmer, Clark Mills: "I voted for Cleveland three times. I am going to be a

H. E. Palmer, Bridgewater

Over Along the Pacific. Col Frank Wilkeson of Washington, formerly Populist member of the Legislature. He says: I am an expansionist of the most extreme ype and believe in holding the Philippine Islands for commercial reasons as well as a military and naval base. I have paid taxes for thirty years to establish Eastern manufacturing industry-paid even under angry protest, because I lived in a region remote rom all possibility of profitable manufacture and now, when Washington has a chance to establish a manufacturing industry to supply the people of Asia with finished products, I am a high-tariff advocate. I want the industries of Washington diversified: I want our coast built up and commerce established. "I believe that the success of Democracy will directly and disastrously affect my pocket; that it would if carried to a logical conclusion create industrial and commercial lethargy on the Pacific coast.

Hiram Hammer of Washington, formerly a Populist and considered an able one: "I believed that unless we had free silver, want and destitution would follow. The reverse is true. John H. Slipper, Hamilton, Wash., one of the largest merchants in the Upper Skagit Valley. Dr. M. B. Mattice, Sedro-Woolley, Wash.

A. Lyons, Burlington, Wash. C. E. Bingham, Mayor of Sedro-Woolley, Wash., head of the banking house of C. E. Henry Thompson, Birdsview, Wash., an extensive rancher. N. W. Carpenter, Mount Vernon, Wash., saw J. B. Holbrook, Sedro-Woolley, Wash., bank

I. W. Hellman, President of the Nevada Bank of San Francisco and Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Los Angeles: "I am a life-long Demoerat, but I shall not vote for Mr. Bryan for President. Bryan is not a Democrat. California has been much benefited by expansion. Our trade has grown and is growing continually by reason of the policy of the present Administration. I believe that this trade will keep on expanding if Mr. McKinley is reelected. It would be lost if Mr. Bryan were elected."

BELIEVES IN ROLDING THE PHILIPPINES.

Judge A. C. Hinkson of Sacramento, Cal. Long before the retention of the Philippines had crystallized into a political issue I expressed the unqualified opinion that, not only as a wise political and commercial measure, but as a duty to the inhabitants of the Philippine Islands, they should be retained as our territory and should be governed as our other territories are governed. To this view I still adhere, regardless of the wishes of the comparatively few who are in rebellion against our Government." William H. Devlin, at one time Democratio candidate for Assemblyman, Sacramento, Cal., now a leading attorney: "I favor the policy of President McKinley, and intend to vote for L. C. Mead, Fresno, Cal., former member of

Legislature E. B. Pond, San Francisco, formerly Mayor of that city, and Democratic candidate for Governor of California in 1890. George S. Courter, North Yakima, Wash.,

Secretary Silver Republican State Central Committee in 1896. L. C. Whitney, Everett, Wash, former Prose cuting Attorney of Snohomish county F. M. Sanders, Entiat, Chelan county, Wash.

George Donworth, attorney, Seattle. Josiah Collins, attorney, Seattle publican organizer and Fusion nominee for the State Senate in 1896. Richard Gowan, attorney, Seattle

Cal W. W. Ridnath, mining man, Spokane, W. H. Plummer, atterney, Spokane. Col. J. J. Weisenberger, Whatcom, original Gilver Republican.

D. G. Haight, business man, Aberdeen, Wash. Col. J. J. Toikas, Aberdeen, merchant, life ong Democrat. Mark Payette, Aberdeen, merchant

I. C. Crowtherz, Aberdeen, retired. H. L. Blanchard, Chimacum, Jofferson county President State Dairy Association. R. J. Chard, Port Townsend, Wash., Charles Pink, Port Townsend; appointed

ustoms inspector under the Cleveland Administration. A. N. Godfrey, Port Townsend; appointed deputy collector of customs under the Cleveland Administration.

J. C. Pringle, editor Port Townsend Rveni F. F. Marble, North Yakima; nominated for County Surveyor, an office to which he had formerly been elected by Fusionists: resigned from ticket and declared for McKinley.

Thomas W. B. Thomson, Hamilton, Wash. mine owner. Louis Kirkby, Sedro-Woolley, Wash., mail W. E. Schricker, La Conner, Wash, head of the Skagit County Bank. Adam Huff, Bayview, Wash., rancher M. O. Pease, Anacortes, Wash., mine owner Col. George G. Lyon, Scattle, newspaper pre-

J. E. Yeend, Walla Walla, farmer, State Sen-Dr. G. V. Calhoun, Seattle. J. C. McCrimmon, North Yakima, chairman Populist County Committee in 1896.

Dr. J. C. House, Port Townsend. John Louden, North Yakima. Judge C. C. Austin, Seattle, former St Williams, Seattle Sale

W. A. Peters, attorney, Seattle N. J. Craig. Everett, member City Council. John McRae, Everett, former City Council-A. W. Criswell, Everett.

Harry Knowles, Snohomish, Chief Deputy J. M Holden, Orting, People's party organize in 1896. James Coplan, Orting

Henry Beckett, Orting.

H. P. Bulger, Tacoma M. B. Harben, Seattle. Wilson Alperson, silver mine owner, Spokane The free silver sentiment of Washington has been on its deathbed for four years. We know what expension is to the Pacific Coast, and we are for it CALIFORNIA KNOWS HER INTEREST. John W. Sullivan, member of the Democratic County Central Committee, San Jose, Cal : "It until a while ago, and when there marched is a notorious fact that California has been rated as 'small potatoes and few in the hill' in the busy East. Pacific and Oriental expansion will change all that. It is the interest of every Californian, of whatever political faith, to stand in with the policy of Pacific and Oriental ex-And I very much mistake the temper of our people if they do not take that view of the

> "the great banker of California. A. B. Provines, Healdsburg, Cal. H. S. Foote, San Francisco, United States District Attorney under the Cleveland Admin

I. W. Hellman, sufficiently well known to b referred to in ordinary speech in that State as nois President of the United States? Yet his Democracy and that of Bryan are identi-Some Southern Mckinley Democrats.

W. C. P. Breckinridge, former representa ive in Congress from Kentucky Gen. W. H. Hardin, Owensboro, Ky. L. L. Rubel. Louisville, Kv. stove founder.

Marion Butler, United States Senator from

Gen. Walter S. Turnbull, San Francisco

Committee and State Harbor Commissioner.

Robert Y. Hayne, San Francisco

Crittenden Thornton, San Francisco

E. F. Berward, Fresno, Cal., banker

Russell Heath, farmer at Santa Barbara

Henry E. Highton, San Francisco: "American Democracy means reverence for the Stars toerney and the rule of the lowest dregs of uld you like to have John P. Aitgeld of Illi-

Europe both be avoided in this country.

State Senator

North Carolina

H. D. McCormick of Kentucky, formerly State Senator of Missouri. W. S. McChesney, Lexington, Ky., Vice-President of the Mexican Veterans' Association. Postmaster under President Cleveland Morgan Green, cashier of the Bank of McKenzie , McKenzie, Tenn : "I will cast my first Republican vote this fall for McKinle and Roosevelt and the straight Republican ticket. I have voted the Democratic ticket for thirty years without a scratch. The gold standard restored confidence and opened the mills, furnaces and shops and farms. I do not propose to experiment any none I am going to vote for the policy that prospered us under Harrison and McKinley From this day I am an all-wool, yard-wide Republican. Gen. John Gill. Baltimore, President of the Mercantile Trust and Deposit Company. "How can reputable citizens join in supporting this candidate (Bryan)?" Lloyd Jackson, Baltimore, Bryan's manager in 1896. "The Kansas City platform is un-American as to expansion."

J. H. Thompson of Annapolis, formerl ollector of the Port B. A. Jamison of Sensmount, formerly Demo cratic candidate for Congress Allan McLane, brother of the State's At

Hambleton & Co . Baltimore, bankers

Sulvester Summers, Postmaster at Lock 53. Robert C. Davidson, Baltimore, formerly Mayor of the city: "I would not vote for Bryan on a gold platform. I think he is even more dangerous than the platform he is on.

WILL VOTE FOR BUSINESS AND PROGRESS Joseph Bear of Frostburg, Md. life-long emocrat, and twice Mayor of the city

McKinley's Administration has convinced me that the Republican party is the party of busi ess and progress Randelph Barton. Baltimore: a lifelone Democrat, who served in the Confederate army throughout the war, and who was chosen delegate to the National Democratic Con-vertion at Chicago in 1898 Sterett Gittings, son of the late Richard J. Of tings of Baltimore, who was a prominent and lifelong Democrat, for many years State's Attorney for Bultimore county and one of the Presidential Electors for Tilde and Hendricks

Jay Williams, Salisbury, Md , attorney Edgar H. Gans, Baltimore, attorney J. H. Thomas, Annapolis, formerly Collecto of the Port

Gen Ferdinand C Latrobe, Baltimore, several times Baltimore's Mayor. Charles J. Bonaparte, Baltimore. Judge E. H. Norton, Platte City, Mo., formerly of the Missouri Supreme Court: "I regard the silver plank in the platform, together with the assailment of the integrity of the courts, as revolutionary in the extreme-as freighted with evil-promotive of disorder and bloodshed -destructive to the best interests of the lawabiding-at war with good government, and an invitation to the lawless to commit unlawful acts with impunity." W. S. Robinson, Marceline, Mo., Democrat for seventy years: "The anti-expansion argument is thinner than cheesecloth." Richard Dalton of Missouri, who contested with William Stone in 1892 for Governor. John Johnson, recently chairman of the Democratic Central Committee of McDonald county, Mo.

LET US BANISH POPULISM. John L. Blair, St. Louis son of Frank Blair, Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency in 1508: "What I most wish to see now is that Mr. Bryan shall be so overwhelmingly defeate that he and all his Populistic ilk shall be forever banished from the Democratic party. I think it the duty of every good citizen to aid in bringing about this result, to the end that no party will ever hereafter insult the intelligence and self-respect of the people by putting at its head such a tatterdemalion as he who now assumes to lead the Democratic party." W. W. Bryan, Populist farmer, Waco, Mo. distant relative of William Jennings Bryan. J. L. Babler, El Dorado Springs, Mo., old-line Democrat: "The gold standard has had the opposite effect from what Bryan predicted.

Everybody is prosperous ' John Barkley, Smithfield, Mo. W. W. McDowell, Smithfield.

John Lochin, road commissioner, Carl June tion, Mo. (c) J. C. Wear, Poplar Bluff, Mo. Gen. D. N. McIntyre, former Attorney-Gen eral of Missouri and an ex-Confederate soldier Louis H. Breker, St. Charles, Mo.: "The moment the Democratic party condemned President McKinley for what its leaders style his 'imperialistic' policy, that moment I de cided that they ceased to be fair-minded and patriotic citizens."

Twenty-seven members of the Nichols family, Burlington Junction, Mo. A. R. Haughawout, Webb City, Mo. Isson G. Gillett, an old-time Democrat, and his three sons, Stanberry, Mo .: "Not one of Bryan's 1806 prophecies have come true." Webster Nance, Hubbard, Mo., sixty years

Col. R. E. Anderson, Hannibal, Mo. M. D. Walker, public administrator of Ho. county, Mo. James L. Davis, Chillicothe, Mo. J. West Goodwin, Sedalia, Mo., editor A. Fing. Stanberry, Mo. Ralph Simmons, banker, Seymour, Mo. Capt. R. A. Coilles, Piedmont, Mo., Captair

artillery in the Confederate army.

Col. G. W. Ceath, Piedmont, Mo.

W. W. For I, Bloomfield, Mo.

Democrat.

Col. O. L. Nieder, Mansfield, Mo., Demo ratic candidate for Prosecuting Attorney in H. E. Stiff, Mountain Grove, Mo., lumbe merchant.

M. Gorman, Hartville, former Democratic collector of Wright county. Henry Snyder, Mountain Grove, farmer Good prices for farm products." Prof. J. S. Magee, Cape Girardeau, Mo R. McCombs, Jackson, miller. Robert Barnard, McElhaney Station, farmer

Jesse Frank, Grangeville, J. H. Stoinecipher, Buffalo, Mo. W. D. Olderworth, St. Louis, Walter Olderworth, St. Louis,

Henry Heineman, St. Louis California: "The great civilization which we James Gardner, St. Louis. have achieved and our great development Sugene Guerre, Florrisant, Mo. Col. John P. Irish, President Cleveland's

William Offer, St. Louis, telegraph operate Dr. Davis, Charleston, Mississippi county

John A. Jackson, Chillicothe: "Den't wan to shoot in the air any longer." G. S. Clemens, Carthage. Thomas H. Harkless, Lamar. Gen. D. H. McIntyre, Mexico, Mo., former

Attorney-General of Missouri, ex-Confederate will vote the Republican ticket from top to bot-William D. English of San Francisco, Cal., tom. Julius S. Walsh, President of the Terminal formerly chairman of the Democratic State Railroad Association of St. Jouis. Col. C. H. Maddux, San Francisco, formerly

G. H. Walker, stock broker, St. Louis. H. H. Pike, live stock dealer, Ashland, Pike county. Mo.: "A good many 'Pikers' will be with me in voting for McKinley this year. can borrow money at a lower rate of interest than I could before McKinley's election, and get a better price for my stock. James Campbell, stock broker, St. Louis. A. W. Day, President Day Rubber Company and Stripes, and not a conglomeration of in-St. Louis. solent and dangerous notions that lead to the William B. Cowan, cashler, National Bank red flag of anarchy. It is vital that the disof Commerce, St. Louis.

P. C. Maffett, President Missouri Railway tinction between the two Democracles-Bryanism and the American Democracy-be pre-Company, St. Louis. served. It is necessary that the rule of plu-R. P. Tansey, President St. Louis Transfer Company, St. Louis.

Alonzo C. Church, Vice-President Wiggins Ferry Company, St. Louis John Sculin, President Wiggins Ferry Company, St. Louis: "I expect to vote for McKinley and to continue voting the Republican ticket as long as the Democratic party continues t advocate the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1." Judge John G. Wear, Poplar Bluff, Mo., twelve years on the Missouri Circuit Court bench. L. J. Williams, President of the West Vir-ginta Bar Association. Gen. E. M. Rosser, a former Confederate ommander of Virginia. John Ruby, Charleston, W. Va. business man. Dr. R. S. Henry, Charleston, W. Va.,

Major A. Burlow, Charleston, W. Va BRYAN DOESN'T WANT GOLD STANDARD VOTES John Skelton Williams, Richmond, Va., President of the Seaboard Air Line. President Williams wrote in answer to an editor's question to him "I say to you that I shall vote for Mr. McKinley and hope for his election, because I believe that Mr. Bryan was sincere and truthful when he publicly and explicitly declared: 'I do not want any man to vote for me and then object to my doing what i expect to do if you elect me, and if I can prevent the maintenance of the gold standard, you may rely upon my doing it the very first possible opportunity I have. I do not see how he could escape attempting the performances of these pledges.

"As a business man having a large stake in the country's welfare, and representing large investments by others, I naturally consider the probable composition of Mr. Bryan's Cabinet, should be be elected. Allowing him to be a truthful and honest man, I can see nothing but a free silver Secretary of the Freasury and a Cabinet built to fit.

"I have always voted the Democratic ticket until Mr. Bryan and the free silver, classantagonism doctrine he represents with such faithful fanaticism where thrust upon the Democratic party." J. R. Williams, Bucks, Summers county

W. Va., in declining a Democratic nomination wrote: "As an honest man I cannot consent to allow my name to remain on a ticket I cannot support. I voted for William McKinley in 189 and am proud of it, as I feel that the Republican party has fully redeemed all its pledges made to the people then, and especially to the farmers. I desire no change in the Administration. I cannot jeopardize my interests for any untried theory of free silver and a bugaboo of imperialism. I am for Mckinley and the Republican ticket."

B. F. Meador, Dunns, W. Va.: "I have been a life-long Democrat, voting that ticket for twenty-one years, but I find that the Republican party is the party of the people; the party for the farmer and the laboring man. I declare myself for McKinley and the Republica party

Frank Freer, Fort Smith, Ark .. Police Justice: "Yes, gentlemen," Justice Freer said, early in the campaign, "if I were a young man I'd vote the Republican ticket. I don't like Bryan's policy. As for those islands over there, we've has since said that he felt like a young man. Judge W. W. Gatewood, Carlebad, Nev

Thomas F. Carrington of Georgia. W. C. Stripling, Fort Worth, Tex., dry goods

merchant. John W. Overstreet, Macon, Ga., attorney. REGARDS THE DEMANDS OF NATIONAL HONOR. Former Judge John L. Hunt of Georgia who led the Democratic silver forces of the State in 1998, has come out for McKieley and Roosevelt on the ground of the demands o national honor. Mayor George T. Wood of Mammoth Springs Ark, wholesale grocer, declares it the duty of all who want good government at home and abroad to support McKinley and Roosevelt

The Hon. H. W. Zoutz, Mammoth Springe J. A. Mayer, Mammoth Springs, Art N. R. Jennings, Mammoth Springs, Ark. J H Parker, Mammoth Springs, Ark. Alexander R. Lawton, Savannah. Ga. shall vote for McKinley and Roosevelt be

cause: "We are Americans, and are against al America's enemies "We are patriotic and are desirous of suppressing those who give aid and comfort to t dishonoring the nation by currency legisla-"We are law abiding, and are against all on couragement of force in the settlement of dis-

"We are progressive, and favor legitimate expansion of our commerce and our power." Capt. Lee Hall, San Antonio, Tex. Capt. Hall says "I went to the Philippines as a Democrat I fought, bled and almost died for my country, and I came home believing that McKinley right, and that such treachery as adopted by the Democratic party will only add to his ma-"The insurgents are holding on in hope tha their friend 'Dr. Bryan.' will be elected, and then they will have freedom. Give them free dom, and one of the blackest pages of blood shed ever recorded in history will be written. McKinley Democrats in New England.

Charles H. Page, Providence, R. I., forme Representative in Congress. "Bryan-I know Bryan. That's why I won vote for him. I am just as good a Democra as I ever was, but Bryan is no Democrat. I was with him in Congress, and I watched then all the populisitic tricks he had. I am againg Bryan because I believe in upholding the Supreme Court "What choice have I except McKinley? There are other candidates, but I guess I wont have to look far." F. P. Garretson, Newport, R. I. Gordon Woodbury, New Hampshire

John W. Cummings, Fall River, Mass.; lawyer and formerly Mayor of the city. Timothy Coakley, Boston: lawyer and free silver advocate, but will not vote to haul down the American flag, so supports McKinley Charles Francis Adams, Massachusetts.

Frank Jones, New Hampshire: always

eral contributor to Democratic campaign fund

Alpheus S. Hardy, Massachusetti Henry W. Lamb, President of the New England Free Trade League, Massachusetts. John T. Wheelwright, Massachusetts; manage of Gov. Russell's campaigns in the Bay State Charles A. Conant, Masschusetts: former Democratic candidate for Congress.

HOME. George B. Weston, Belchertown, Mass. have voted the Democratic ticket since Frank

In Pierce was our President, but the 'pull down the flag and sneak home' policy is too big a dose and if I live I shall vote for McKinley. Any American in whose soul dwells one spark of national pride who is willing to humiliate his country in the eyes of the world should be stood up and shot." John F. Moors, Fall River, Mass .: "Let the nation dream great dreams, let it seek high ideals, but let it not forget that the rule of 70,-000,000 people is a mighty responsibility, not to be idly intrusted to a young man with hallucin ations, who always appears with a cure-all.

James A. Curtiss, Meriden, Conn. Republican Democrats of the Northwest, W. H. Kelley, Cheyenne, Wyo.; formerly a Democratic member of the Legislature. He has declined a nomination from the Democrate for Clerk of the District Court, saying: "It is for the greatest good of the country that President McKinley be reflected." Hon. J. M. Wilson, Douglas, Wyo.; sheep business Hon. Timothy Kinney, Rock Springs, Wyo.:

Hon. Melvin Nichols, Sundance, Wyo.; supported Bryan on silver issue; formerly a R Hon. A. D. Chamberlain, Douglas, Wyo. Hon. John Beckwith, Evanston, Wyo.

Silas Guthrie, Moorereft, Wyo.; sheep bush William Daley, Rawlins, Wyo.; sheep business Thomas Painter, Evanston, Wyo. A. M. Bruce, Lander, Wyo.; sheep business.

Hon. John McDermott, Glendo, Wyo.; sheep A. W. Phillips, Douglas, Wyo. Hon. D. A. Kingsbury, Buffalo, Wyo. Thomas Reed, Cheyenne, Wyo. W. W. Cook, M. D., Cheyenne, Wyo. John Cahill, Chevenne, Wyo. Frank Bon, Cheyenne, Wyo.

H. H. Grace, West Superior, Wis.; former candidate for Mayor. Louis F. Ogden, Wisconsin. M. Sievers, Milwaukee, travelling man-Dr. Gilbert E. Seaman, Milwaukee, assistant health commissioner of the city, and lately army urgeon with Gen. MacArthur in the

"My reason for supporting Mr. McKinley in his attitude toward the Philippines is that I consider it the best that could be assumed toward the islands. The home opposition to the Administration has certainly contributed largely to the American fatalities in the islands. While I don't believe the reelection of President McKinley would put an entire stop to the insurrection, I think it would tend to greatly discourage it. No motive but a desire to do right as I understand it prompts me in this matter. After my experience of a year in Luzon I would not be honest with myself if I did not oppose the election of Mr. Bryan."

Gen. Edward S. Bragg of Wisconsin: "The country is prosperous; money is plenty and good: interest has dropped to 5 per cent.; the market of our abundant crops has furnished the money to discharge old mortgages and build new homes: labor finds employment in our State, and the laborer fixes the wages. Why should you desire a change, unless it be for the better? And that better state you cannot hope to find in the balloon of the idealist, Brvan. Prof. J. T. Sims, Mosinee, Wis., principal of the High School. Claire B. Bird, attorney, Wausau, Wis.: "We must look to the Republican party to administer safely the practical affairs of the Government. WONT AID DOCTRINES PREGNANT WITH EVILS. Charles H. Schweizer, La Crosse, Wis., former City Attorney and chairman of the Democratic City Committee: "Being convinced that Mr. Bryan's election would result in disaster to the country at large, presently or ultimately, I must refuse to aid or lend comfort in any way to doctrines which are so pregnant with evils I feel that it is my duty to exert what little influence I may command in opposing his election, and to cast my vote as my convictions dictate, for McKinley and Roosevelt." John Johnston, Milwaukee, cashier of the Marine National Bank of Milwaukee (formerly the Wisconsin Marine Bank), the oldest banking institution in the West: "I am a Republican for the present at least. I am thoroughly convinced the acquisition of foreign territory in the manner outlined by the present Adminis tration will redound to the business interes of this country. Alfred James, Milwankee, Pr Northwestern National Fire Insurance Com-Sylvester Hartmann, Green Bay, Wis., grocest R. Winkler, Scott, Wis. Chris Bammel, Adell, Wis. Gottlieb Suengler, Adell, Wis. Robert Schultz, Adell, Wis Fred Melcher, Random Lake, Wie Fred Dannes, Adeli, Wis. Ernst Sider, Scott, Wis.

Gottlieb Hilger, Adell, Wie

Henry Capelle, Adell, Wis.

John Goetsch, Random Lake, Wie. Robert Viersig, Adell. Wis. C. H. Hopkins, Renville, Minn. A. A. Ames, Minneapolis, thrice Mayor of the city. W. A. Dobbyn, Minneapella.

Henry Kellar, Sault Centre, Minn., State G. D. Perkins, Minneapolis, veteran. IT ISN'T A DEMOCRATIC TICKET. Michael Doran, St. Paul: "Father of the Minnesota Democracy: "Why should I support what they call a Democratic ticket. There is not a Democrat upon it. I am for progression and prosperity, and I am satisfied with the present national Administration. I shall do some hard work for McKinley and the Republican State ticket, for I do not want this country to get into "We are honest and are against all efforts the hands of knockers Gen. William Crooks, St. Paul. 8. L. Smith, Detroit: "Four years ago I thought Bryan was sincere. Now I think he has proven himself an arrant demagogue."

Judge William Newton, Flint, Mich

W. R. Selby, Michigan L. J. Callinan, Michigan James A. Leisen. Menominee, Mich., formerty porratic State Senator E. J. Pemberthy, Houghton, Mich., formerly A. F. Tibbetts, Newgayo, Mich., former can didate for Congress. Richard A. Montgomery, Lansing, Mich. Charles H. O'Donald, Clare, Mich. The Hon. Allen B. Morse, Ionia, Mich., fornerly Chief Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, and in 1892 the Democratic candidate for Governor. Prof. Ferris S. Fitch, Pontlac, Mich.: former shairman Democratic County Committee, and founder of the Poet: "Bryanism is revolting o me. The maintenance of the honor and credit of the nation is as incumbent on every citizen to-day as in 1996." G. J. McClintock, Laingsburg, Mich.: for William Johnston, Leslie, Mich James Nesbitt, Schoolcraft, Mich. Dr. S. B. Snyder, Fulton, Mich.

R. H. Buckhout, Kalamazoo, Benjamin F. Rowe, Kalamazoo, The Hon, James Powers, Scotts, Mich. Frank J. Milliman, Scotts, Mich. C. J. Daniels, Athens, Mich.; Jeweler. John Broad, Harbor Springs, Mich. Dr. S. S. C. Phippen, Owosso, Mich. Charles Hamper, Owosso, chaff an of the Democratic Silver Committee, Shiawasees county. C. H. Hudson, Marcellus, Mich. Henry Allen, Vicksburg, Mich.

Bird Williams, Vicksburg, Mich Jay Williams, Vicksburg, Mich. Fred Prolo, Vicksburg, Mich. Philip Prolo, Vicksburg, Mich. George Smith, Marshall, Mich. N. W. Newhouse, Stanton, Mich.; editor of the Chipper. W. E. Lear, Grand Ledge, Mich. John Simpson, Grand Ledge.

Thomas Wade, Fennyille, Mich. William Truax, Wayland, Mich. David F. Runton, Grand Haven, Mich

NOT READY TO PULL DOWN THE PLAG AND SNEAR STANDS BY THE RESULTS OF THE WAR.